UNDERWOOD, the Honourable Judge George [illegible] Auburn, New York. 1918 (001)

Sept 21. 1918

182

72 South Street,
Auburn, New York.

My dear Sir Robert.

Mrs. Underwood and I are hoping we may have you as our guest at the time of the Auburn Seminary Centennial. In fact I think you and I settled that when you were here last June!

Many of the delegates will bring their wives with them, so Dr. Stewart tells me - It would be entirely convenient & give us much pleasure if we could entertain Lady Falconer with you.

Please let me know when & how you will arrive in Auburn (whether by train or trolley from Syracuse or Rochester) and I will meet you.

We are looking forward to having you with us much

Very great pleasure
With sincere regards I am
Very truly yours
George Underwood

Sir Robert Falconer D.D.

September 24th, 1918

Professor George Underwood,

72 South Street,

Auburn, New York.

Dear Sir:

In the absence of Sir Robert Falconer in England I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st. The President is expected to return in time for the opening of our term on the first of October.

I am sure he will gladly accept your kind offer of hospitality during his stay in Auburn. Lady Falconer will not be able to accompany him.

I shall write you after the arrival in Toronto of the President so that you may know when to expect him.

Thanking you on his behalf, I am,

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.

October 2nd, 1918

Honourable Judge Underwood,

72 South Street,

Auburn, N.Y.

My dear Judge Underwood:

I have just wired to President Stewart that to my great regret I shall be unable to go to Auburn for next Wednesday. I have returned from Europe a week late being held by the coal strike at Liverpool, and I find on my return so many matters that require my attention I cannot leave Toronto for some weeks. It would have been a great personal pleasure to me to visit Auburn again and to accept your kind hospitality to which I was looking forward with such anticipation. I should like very much to have taken the greetings of Canada to the very distinguished gathering that will be held next week. However, I do not now see how I can and I am afraid that President Stewart will have to take the will for the deed. He has such an exceptionally good programme that any personal contribution of mine will not be much missed. I hope that since I have not been able to see you in Auburn I shall have the pleasure of seeing you before long in Toronto. With kind regards and pleasant memories of last June,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.